This application does not contain an abstract of the disclosure as required by 37 CFR 1.72(b). An abstract on a separate sheet is required.

Claims 14-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for the treatment of bacterial infections, does not reasonably provide enablement for the treatment of microbial infections, TB, Syphilis, Helicobacter pylori or Chlamydia. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to use the invention commensurate in scope with these claims. Note that the terminology "microbial infections" encompasses viral infections. While erythromycin B is known for treating bacterial infections, it is not known for treating viral infections or the specific infections encompassed by claims 17-18. The specification fails to provide any evidence that erythromycin B antibiotic is useful for treating such infections.

Claims 1-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

It is not clear what is encompassed by the terminology "pharmaceutically acceptable derivative thereof" (all occurrences). Note that the specification fails to define said terminology.

Claims 14 and 17 provide for the use of Erythromycin B, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claims 14 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over the European Patent No. 0 553 353 A1, Bojarska-Dahlig (Tech. (2N, Quant. Struct.-Act. Anal.), pages 343-349), Bojarska-Dahlig et al (Pol. J. Pharmacol.), Ono et al, Cane et al, Kibwage et al or Martin et al

The European Patent discloses erythromycin B and 2'-ester-erythromycin B (page 5, Example 10).

Each of Bojarska-Dahlig'Tech , Bojarska-Dahlig et al (Pol. J. Pharmacol.) and Ono et al discloses erythromycin B or its derivatives and their biological activity.

Cane et al disclose 2'-benzoate of erythromycin B (page 4963).

Kibwage et al disclose antibacterial activity of erythromycin B antibiotic and its derivatives, Martin et al disclose antibacterial activity of erythromycin B antibiotic and its derivatives.

The claimed compounds, compositions and methods are anticipated over the art of record. In addition, if there is a difference in an amount of the active ingredient used, a person having ordinary skill in the art at the time the instant invention was made would have been motivated to vary the amount of the active ingredient in order to prepare an optimal dosage.
